Arizona R. R. Agent
Claims Reward for
Arrest of Murderer

PHOENIX, Oct. 19.—Fred Lewis, railroad agent at Topeca, Ariz., came to Phoenix today to claim rewards totaling $3104 which had been offered in connection with the murder of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Erhardt, at their home here last summer. Lewis claimed he caused the arrest of Mose Gibson, negro, who was executed recently at San Quentin prison, California, for the murder of Roy Trapp, a rancher of Fullerton, Calif. After he was convicted of the Trapp murder, Gibson confessed he murdered the Erhardts.

According to the station agent's story, he had just finished reading a newspaper account of the Trapp murder, including the description of the negro, when he looked up from his paper and saw the negro standing before him.
